Premises	Unit A-12-2, Asia Pacific University, Technology Park Malaysia, Bukit Jalil, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia
Permitted Use	Private residential use only
Occupants	Tenant and approved immediate family/authorized residents only

The Tenant shall not use the premises for illegal activities, short-term rental, commercial storage, business operations, nuisance activities, or any purpose that breaches community management rules.

3. Tenancy Term

Commencement Date	15 August 2026
Expiry Date	14 August 2027
Tenancy Duration	12 months
Renewal	Subject to written agreement at least thirty (30) days before expiry

The tenancy begins on 15 August 2026 and ends on 14 August 2027. Any extension or renewal must be agreed in writing by both parties. Continued occupation after expiry without written renewal shall not create a new tenancy unless the Landlord confirms it in writing.

4. Rent, Deposits, and Initial Payment

Monthly Rental	RM 1,600.00
Rent Due Date	on or before the 5th day of each month
Payment Method	bank transfer to the Landlord's nominated bank account
Security Deposit	RM 3,200.00
Utility Deposit	RM 800.00
Access Card / Key Deposit	RM 200.00
Total Initial Payment	RM 5,800.00
Late Payment Term	RM 50.00 if rent remains unpaid seven (7) days after the due date

The Tenant shall pay rent punctually without deduction or set-off unless agreed by the Landlord in writing. The deposits secure unpaid rent, unpaid utility bills, missing items, damage beyond fair wear and tear, cleaning costs, and other valid deductions arising from breach of this agreement.

5. Utilities, Service Charges, and Management Rules

- The Tenant shall pay electricity, water, internet, and other usage-based charges during the tenancy.
- The Tenant shall comply with all Asia Pacific University house rules, security rules, parking rules, and management notices.
- The Landlord remains responsible for quit rent, assessment, and ordinary building maintenance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing.
- The Tenant shall not tamper with meters, access cards, security devices, fire safety equipment, or building systems.

6. Tenant's Covenants

- To keep the premises clean, safe, and in good tenantable condition, allowing for fair wear and tear.
- To promptly notify the Landlord of leaks, defects, electrical issues, pest problems, breakage, or safety concerns.
- To avoid causing nuisance, disturbance, illegal activity, excessive noise, or damage to the premises or common property.
- To obtain written consent before installing fixtures, changing locks, drilling, painting, renovating, or altering the premises.
- To not sublet, assign, license, or transfer occupation of the premises without written consent from the Landlord.
- To allow reasonable access for inspection, repair, maintenance, valuation, or viewing after receiving reasonable notice.

7. Landlord's Covenants

- To give the Tenant peaceful enjoyment of the premises during the tenancy, subject to this agreement.
- To maintain the structural elements and major systems of the premises unless damage is caused by the Tenant or the Tenant's visitors.
- To return the deposit balance after lawful deductions and after the Tenant vacates, returns keys/cards, and settles final bills.
- To give reasonable notice before entering the premises except in emergency situations.

8. Repairs, Damage, and Maintenance

The Tenant is responsible for minor repairs caused by daily use and for all damage caused by negligence, misuse, accident, guests, visitors, or unauthorized works. The Landlord is responsible for major structural repairs and pre-existing defects unless the issue is caused or worsened by the Tenant.

Emergency repairs may be carried out immediately where needed to prevent danger, flooding, fire risk, serious property damage, or disruption to other residents. The responsible party shall bear the reasonable cost based on the cause of the issue.

9. Inventory and Handover Items

Item	Quantity	Condition at Handover

Kitchen cabinet	1 set	Good condition
Water heater	1 unit	Working

10. Termination, Default, and Early Vacant Possession

Either party may terminate the tenancy by giving two (2) months written notice, unless a different period is required by law or agreed in writing. The Landlord may take action to terminate the tenancy if the Tenant fails to pay rent, seriously breaches this agreement, causes serious damage, conducts illegal activity, or refuses to remedy a breach after written notice.

If the Tenant ends the tenancy early without the Landlord's written consent, the Landlord may deduct from the deposit any lawful outstanding rent, reasonable re-letting cost, repair cost, cleaning cost, unpaid utility bill, or other proven loss arising from the early termination.

11. End of Tenancy and Deposit Refund

- The Tenant shall return the premises vacant, clean, and in good condition on or before the expiry or termination date.

- All keys, access cards, parking cards, and provided items must be returned during final handover.
- The parties shall inspect the premises and record any damage, missing item, unpaid bill, or cleaning issue.
- The Landlord shall refund the deposit balance after deducting valid outstanding amounts and after final bills are received.

12. Notices

Any notice under this agreement may be delivered by hand, email, WhatsApp/SMS followed by written confirmation, or registered post to the contact details stated in this agreement. Tenant notices may be sent to sarahapu@gmail.com or +60163421943. Landlord notices may be sent to residences@apu.edu.my or +60389961234.

13. Governing Law

This agreement is governed by the laws applicable in Malaysia. Any dispute should first be discussed in good faith. If unresolved, the parties may seek mediation, tribunal assistance, court process, or any lawful dispute resolution route available for tenancy matters.

14. Full Agreement

This document contains the full tenancy agreement between the parties for the premises. Any amendment, waiver, renewal, or special condition must be made in writing and signed or clearly accepted by both parties.
